

REMEMBRANCE FOR PEACE

SATURDAY
NOVEMBER 8TH

2:00PM - 82 SYDENHAM ST

Presentation & Discussion:
*Remembering for Peace

Featuring: Jamie Swift, co-author of Warrior Nation: Rebranding Canada in an Age of Anxiety and members of the Cantabile Choir

Canada's famous war memorial at Vimy Ridge features the statue "Breaking of the Sword." How has this dramatic message of peace been eclipsed by a glorious, birth-of-a-nation war story? How can we commemorate the tragedy of World War I by emphasizing peace? Free or by donation.

SATURDAY
NOVEMBER 8TH

7:30PM - 82 SYDENHAM ST

Cantabile Choirs of Kingston Presents:
*Letters Home

Cantabile honours the 100th anniversary of WWI in music that expresses the universal hope for peace and reconciliation. Included will be the world premiere of a new composition by the celebrated young Canadian composer, Sarah Quartel.

Season and subscription tickets available now. Single tickets go on sale October 25th for $25 at cantabilechoirs.ca or call 613.549.0099.

TUESDAY
NOVEMBER 11TH

7:00PM COOKE'S PORTSMOUTH UNITED CHURCH

Open Sing with
*Open Voices Community Choir

A fully participatory sing along event! Commemorate Remembrance Day with a welcoming community. Grieving the tragedy of war, committed to the promise of peace. Open to all ages and experience levels. Light refreshments will be served This event is free or by donation.

Please contact info@peacequest.ca for rideshare options.

THURSDAY
NOVEMBER 13TH

6:45PM - 1200 PRINCESS STREET

Quarterly Public Meeting & Panel:
*A Soldier and a Nun Discuss the Meaning of Remembrance Day

Featuring Sister Pauline Lally, Co-founder of PeaceQuest and Col. F. J. Chagnon, of CFB Kingston. An opportunity for dialogue about peace building. How should the peace movement evolve to meet today's challenges? Premiere of PeaceQuest's new video.

Refreshments will served. Free will donations accepted. Please contact info@peacequest.ca for rideshare options.

FRIDAY
DECEMBER 5TH

7:00PM MEMORIAL HALL IN CITY HALL

Remembering the 1914 Christmas Truce

This unique event blends meditation, song, poetry and film. This event is free or by donation.

War propaganda was urging soldiers to believe they were fighting monsters. Yet on that winter morning they recognized their common humanity. The shooting stopped. Soldiers swapped cap badges. They shared food and drink and played soccer. They organized joint religious services. They showed each other photos of their loved ones. The high command was appalled.

PEACEQUEST EVENTS ARE OPEN TO ALL FAITHS AND PHILOSOPHIES.

All venues are wheelchair accessible - - For more details visit peacequest.ca

